Thurſday, May 10. 1716.

Vienna, May 2.

'A Report is ſpread here, that the Grand 'Signior has accepted the Mediation 'of the King of Great-Britain; which 'we look upon to be the Effect of the 'firm and generous Reſolution which his Imperial 'Majeſty has cauſed to be ſignified to the Porte 'by his Miniſter M. Fleiſchman, of aſſiſting the 'Venetians with all his Forces, conformably to the 'Treaty of Alliance which he has with that Repub-'lick, and has juſt renewed; which the Turks know 'very well; and are beſides ſufficiently informed of 'the bad Condition of the King of Sweden's Af-'fairs, from whom they can no longer expect a 'Diverſion in their Favour. But in regard that 'the Turks have made Preparations both by Sea 'and Land ſo large as to have coſt them immenſe 'Sums, we have a watchful Eye upon them in this 'Court, and omit nothing for putting ourſelves 'in a Condition to open the Campaign immediate-'ly, and act Offenſively againſt the Infidels, his 'Imperial Majeſty having near 130000 Men in 'Hungary and Tranſylvania, all Veteran choſen 'Troops; from whom, by divine Aſſiſtance, we 'may promiſe ourſelves Succeſs; the Houſe of 'Auſtria having never had before ſo fine and nu-'merous Armies as they have at this time. 'Tis 'talked even that his Imperial Majeſty will himſelf 'go to Hungary aſſoon as the Empreſs is gone a-'broad from her Lying-in, which according to the 'Cuſtom of this Court laſts two Months.

Hamburgh, May 12. 'We have received Con-'firmation of the divers conſiderable Advantages 'that the Norwegians have obtained over the 'Swedes, having obliged them to think of re-'tiring, which will be difficult for them to do, 'ſeeing according to the Daniſh Accounts, all the 'Paſſages through which they muſt go are ſhut up. 'Among theſe Diſgraces, the Partiſans of the 'Swedes promiſe themſelves great Advantages from 'their Fleet, which went out of Carelſcroon 18 'Men of War of the Line and 6 Frigates. Theſe 'gave Chace to the Daniſh Rear-Admiral Kaes with '6 Men of War, who had much to do to retire to 'Dragoe near Copenhagen, the Swedes having 'purſued him as far as the Koger Bay, where they 'lay two Days without attempting any thing. We 'cannot penetrate into their Deſign, there being 'little Appearance that they can undertake any 'thing againſt Seeland, by reaſon it is full of 'Troops, who are all ordered to the Coaſt; ſo 'that they can only make a Deſcent upon the ſmal-'ler Iſlands adjacent, and for the execution of that 'too they will hardly have time enough: Or other-'wiſe paſs the Sound and ſail to the Coaſt of Nor-'way, to relieve their Tranſport Ships which are 'ſurrounded by Vice-Admiral Gabel; in which 'caſe Rear-Admiral Kaes has Orders to keep a-'head of them, and joyn Vice-Admiral Gabel, 'which yet will not render the Danes equally 'ſtrong with the Swedes in Number of Ships.

Paris, May 16. Letters from Barcelona of the 27th paſt ſay, that they had a Week before begun the Fortifications of that Place, and a Citadel to cover the Port. Several Perſons have been ar-reſted there upon Suſpicion of being Maleconten-ts, and ſent to the Caſtle of Lerida. No Miquelets had appeared there a long time, till four Days be-fore a Troop of them were ſeen on the Side of Blanes, and two Companies of Fuſiliers were ſent againſt them, who overtook them, killed 27 and brought in 18, among whom was their Chief, nam-ed Joſeph Paſtory, who was hanged immedi-ately with four of his Companions, and the reſt are ſtill in Priſon. They write from Toulon of the 3d Inſtant, that they are arming anew in that Port five Ships of War from 60 to 80 Guns, and work upon them with all Diligence, which are to joyn the two others that are ready. The Officers who are to command them are actually arrived there, and they are to ſail about the 20th. 2000 Bombs are to be put on board them, and 'tis daily talked they are to go againſt the Salletines, and are to be joyned by ſeven Portugueze: Great Sums were already come to pay their Equipage. Several Waggons have been ſeized near Colmare in Al-ſatia laden with Champaign Wine, ſaid to be for Prince Eugene, and going towards Switzerland: But it was diſcovered that there was in each Wag-gon a Caſk filled with Pieces of Gold not reform-ed; ſo that they amount in the whole to 5200000 Livres. 'Tis not yet known to whom it belongs, but 'tis believed the Jews of Metz have a good Share in it, a Jew here being ſeized, and alſo the Sieur Camper, a Genoeſe Banker of this City is ſent to the Baſtile upon Suſpicion of being con-cerned in it. On Monday laſt 50 Archers of the Mint ſet out on Horſeback, well armed and with ſeven Charges of Shot each, by three or four at a time, who, 'tis believed, are gone to meet this Seizure and bring it to the Mint. On Thurſday the ſecond Pleading was made in the Cauſe of the Archbiſhop of Rheims, and it being to be pleaded on Thurſdays only, and many Council on a Side, 'tis believed it will be Three Months before it will be determined.

Upon the Refuſal which the Pope has made, to give Bulls to the new Biſhops and Abbots who have been nominated ſince the Death of the late King, demanding that they firſt accept the Conſtitution, and even undergo an Examination before his Nun-cio, to know if any of them are not already tainted with Hereſy; the Attorney General went to the Nuncio, and declared to him, that if the Pope per-ſiſts in refuſing the Bulls, the Court may in the Se-quel take wiſe Meaſures for paſſing them: That it is moreover doing a great Violence to the Liberties of the Gallican Church, and withdrawing himſelf from the Concordate: Deſired him to let the Pope know the Intentions of the Court upon this Sub-ject, in order to pacify all things for the good of the Church; and left with the Nuncio, in Writ-ing, the Act he had declared, and retired.
